 21.12.21 - 22.12.21

1. The first part of the paper is a reading passage about the history of the world's first computer. It is a text of about 1000 words. The passage is divided into several paragraphs. The first paragraph introduces the topic and mentions the name of the computer. The second paragraph describes the appearance of the computer and how it was used. The third paragraph explains how the computer was built and how it worked. The fourth paragraph discusses the problems that were encountered during the development of the computer. The fifth paragraph describes the success of the computer and its impact on the world. The sixth paragraph concludes the passage by stating that the computer was a great achievement and that it paved the way for the development of modern computers.

2. The second part of the paper is a writing task. It consists of two questions. The first question asks you to write a short story about a person who has a special talent. The second question asks you to write a letter to a friend about your plans for the future.
