

Test 17

Complex estimation of studying conditions in educational establishments

1. The recommended area of the classroom (per a person)
2. The recommended temperature of the air in the classroom
3. Which is the recommended level of artificial lighting in the classroom ?
4. How many types of school furniture are singled out?
5. Which type of school furniture is intended for children with a body height of 115 cm?
- 6 The recommended distance between the first writing desk and the blackboard
7. Which criteria are considered when determining if the child is ready for studying at school?
8. Which medical criteria are used for evaluating "school maturity"?
9. How many points should the child score in the Kern & Irasek test to be found ready for starting school?

10. Which is the recommended area of the premises in which PC classes are held (per person)?
11. Which is the recommended duration of work in a PC classroom for the pupils of the 1st form?

12. Which is the recommended duration of work in a PC classroom for the pupils of the 8-9th forms?
13. Which is the proper distance from the computer screen to the child's eyes?

14. What health problems may be associated with the use of audiovisual aids of studying in class?
15. Which is the proper distance from the back side of the first monitor to the screen of the second one
16. What does the notion «school maturity» imply?
17. List external factors of «school maturity»?
18. List risk factors associated with non-readiness of children for schooling